Grading Policy

Product (60%)

Includes final unit quizzes/tests, projects, presentations, and essays.

Process (40%)

Includes daily assignments, reading packets and quizzes, writer's notebook checks, vocabulary packets and quizzes, discussion, etc.

The combination of these categories will account for 80% of your semester grade.

Final Exam (20%)

The purpose of a final exam is to demonstrate that students have mastered the skills taught throughout the semester. The best way to assess knowledge is through writing; therefore, the final exam will consist of three major summative assessments. In addition to the average of these assessments, students will have a final exam for each semester.

Due to the nature of the final exam it is imperative that students do each of these assessments as they are given, because they cannot be made up. These assignments are double jeopardy assignments, as they factor into both the semester grade and the final exam grade.

Late Work

Late work will not be accepted except in cases of extenuating circumstances.

Plagiarism

The English department adheres to the plagiarism policy as outlined in the Student Handbook. Students are expected to do their own work. Plagiarism is not tolerated. The first offense will result in a zero on the assignment. The second offense will result in loss of credit for the course.

Unauthorized use of AI/NLP tools is considered a form of plagiarism and any student found using these tools without permission or in a prohibited manner will be disciplined in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct.
