

Grand Haven High School Wind Ensemble

Course Number: J44a and J44b

Grade Level: 9, 10, 11, 12

Credits : 1

Prerequisite Courses :

Course Description

Open, by audition, to those students with an advanced proficiency on a band instrument. Wind Ensemble members are expected to participate in marching band including: summer band camp, parade and show performances, as well as sectionals. After marching season, the marching band will divide and meet in a concert setting for the remainder of the school year. Objectives include the continuation of the development of correct playing habits, sight-reading, performance standards, intonation and phrasing. This course will expect students to perform very challenging wind band literature. All bands participate in MSBOA festivals and other activities. In addition to traditional concerts, Wind Ensemble members will be required to participate with the symphony orchestra wind section as well as pep band at athletic events. Instructor will conduct auditions for placements.

Course Objectives

- To perform a varied repertoire on your instrument by yourself and with others.
- To learn the techniques necessary to become an independent musician capable of further study and performance on your instrument and/or other instruments.
- To gain experience performing in front of an audience.
- To learn how to work together as a team.
- To gain understanding in music theory, specific performance styles, and develop an understanding of a band's "sound".

Student Expectations

All band students are expected to bring a great attitude and work ethic to each class, rehearsal or performance. Members of the band are also required to be at all concerts, scheduled band events and extra rehearsals. Band is a team effort and participation of each person is vital for the success of all. The band calendar is posted online in May of the previous school year and is communicated during the first week of school. Students and parents are expected to schedule around concerts, scheduled band events and any extra rehearsals. Please see the band handbook for additional expectations.
